MOTION TO CHANGE CONDITION OF BOND

COMES NOW Defendant, and as grounds herefore, shows to the Court as follows:

1. Defendant was indicted on a nine count indictment on July 12, 2007. He was arrested on July 13, 2007 and released on bond.
2. On April 2, 2009, Defendant entered a plea of guilty to Counts 3 and 8. His sentencing is set June 23, 2009.
3. From the time of his arrest to the present date, Defendant has abided by the Order setting conditions of release.
4. As part of the conditions of release Defendant is required to be in his home from 7:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m.
5. Defendant's juvenile daughter is engaged in playing soccer which lasts into the evening, sometimes far after 7:00 p.m. when Defendant is due to be in his home. Furthermore, Defendant requests an extension of his curfew so that he may attend and participate in other family activities. Defendant is requesting, therefore, that the time from which he is required to be in his home at night be extended to 10:00 p.m.

6. Counsel for Defendant is informed that Pretrial Services opposes the granting of this motion.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays the Court enter an Order extending the time for allowing him to be out of the house until 10:00 p.m.
